Workshops provide invaluable opportunities for researchers and industry practitioners to share their state-of-the-art research and development results in areas of particular interest. We invite submissions of cutting-edge workshop proposals to complement the technical program of VTC2013-Spring.
Workshops will cover specific topics with a mix of regular papers, panel discussions, keynotes, and possibly poster presentations. We ask for proposals that deal with topics in emerging areas of mobile and vehicular technologies.

Topics of interest include but are not limited to:

1. Green road telematics
2. Car-2-X communication
3. eMobility
4. Advances for in-vehicle communication
5. Cellular networks for vehicle communication
6. Interconnections and communications of electric vehicles and smart grids
7. Intelligent transport for smart cities

For topics outside these focus areas, please, consult with the respective workshop chairs prior to a proposal submission.

Submission Procedure:
Workshop proposals must be submitted using the online submission-system TrackChair (vtc13spr-wp.trackchair.com/track/1038).
A detailed description of the procedure can be found on the conference website at www.vtc2013spring.org.
Each proposal must include a detailed description of title, organizers, potential committee members (e.g. TPC), format of the workshop, promotion plan, and intended audience.

All proposals will be independently reviewed and a decision on acceptance is communicated by 6 July 2012 at the latest. After acceptance, workshop organizers are expected to set up a website and to actively promote their workshops. The paper submission process will be handled by the online-system vtc13spr-wp.trackchair.com.
